Territorial Army

3083. DR. MOHD. HASHIM KIDWAI: Will the Minister of DEFENCE be pleased to state:

(a) the total present strength of the Indian Territorial Army;

(b) the corresponding figures of the Territorial Army during the last three years;

(c) whether there has been any increase or decrease in the strength of the Territorial Army; and

(d) the details of steps taken by Government to attract more youth to this army?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENCE PRODUCTION AND SUPPLIES IN THE MINISTRY OF DEFENCE (SHRI CHINTAMANI PANIGRAHI): (a) The present sanctioned strength of the Territorial Army (TA) is 43,763.

(b) and (c) The sanctioned strength of the TA during 1985-86 and 1986-87 was 46,882. The strength, however, decreased to 43,615 during 1987-88 due to re-organisation of the Railway TA Units. There was an increase in the strength during the current financial year due to raising of one more Ecological Unit comprising 148 personnel.

(d) Many incentives have been granted by Government from time to time to attract more youth to the TA. Service in the TA has been made pensionable on the basis of aggregate embodied service and certain categories of retired TA personnel are being treated as ex-servicemen.
